Hospice at Home, Inc. Hires New Director of Finance

ST. JOSEPH, MI, May 8, 2007 – Hospice at Home, Inc. is proud to introduce the new Director of Finance, Dan Wassenhove.

Dan Wassenhove joined the organization in April. Wassenhove will be succeeding Dave Richwine who will retire in June. Wassenhove has a bachelor's degree in finance from the University of Notre Dame with nine years of healthcare accounting and finance responsibilities in addition to eight years of commercial banking. His experience includes acute care, long-term care and outpatient therapy facilities. His duties have included performing accounting, finance and human resource functions, analyzing reimbursement and contractual allowances, contract negotiations and staff supervision. Wassenhove, his wife, and four children live in Granger, Indiana.

Hospice at Home, Inc. is a non-profit organization that focuses on the patient and family regardless of the patients' diagnosis, treatment choices, life expectancy, or ability to pay. It provides high quality care to people adjusting to living with a life-limiting illness, to people facing death, to people anticipating the death of a loved one, or to people healing their grief after the death of a loved one. Hospice at Home, Inc. places an emphasis on the emotional, social, and spiritual needs of patients, their families, and caregivers. Serving Berrien, Cass, Van Buren, and Allegan Counties, Hospice at Home, Inc. is coordinated by a team of physicians, nurses, aides, social workers, spiritual care counselors, bereavement coordinators, and trained volunteers. Extending this care, Lory's Place, a bereavement and education center that builds hope and strength for every grieving family, is available to anyone in Southwest Michigan or Northern Indiana.
